

Associate Labour & Employment Lawyer in Calgary (2 – 4 years)

Mathews Dinsdale, Canada's only coast-to-coast management-side labour and employment law firm, is seeking an experienced Labour and Employment Law associate to join our Calgary team. The successful candidate will have 6 years + of experience advising management-side clients on a broad range of workplace law matters. Experience in Labour Relations Board and arbitration proceedings will be an asset for this role. The preferred candidate will have strong academic qualifications, be thoroughly knowledgeable of employment-related legislation, and have a minimum of 4 years of relevant labour law experience.

Our sole focus is workplace law and we have depth of experience across the Country that is unmatched. With six offices and with over six decades of legal and consulting experience, we deliver strategic advice, practical solutions and immediate crisis management, locally and nationally. With 60+ lawyers the firm has offices in Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta and Nova Scotia. We have been repeatedly recognized by Canadian Lawyer magazine as one of the Top 10 Labour and Employment boutiques in Canada. Many of our lawyers have also been recognized as leading practitioners in labour relations, employment law and occupational health and safety law by publications such as Chambers, Lexpert and Best Lawyers.

Mathews Dinsdale provides excellent learning and development opportunities. It also provides meaningful support for its associates, including on mental health and well-being. The Calgary Office leader is on the Board of ASSIST, (the Alberta Lawyers' Assistance Society) which provides professional counselling, support, education, and awareness programs to Alberta's legal professionals. This is a unique opportunity to join a collegial and leading group of lawyers in our Calgary office. The successful applicant will work closely with leading lawyers from across the country and be part of a team providing legal advice to a diverse range of clients.
